

TOURING EXHIBITION
TITLE/SUBTITLE	Tayenebe : the Tasmanian Aboriginal fibre artwork project
DEVELOPMENT STATUS	in development
OTHER PARTIES	Arts Tasmania, National Museum of Australia
DATE OPEN	2 July 2009
SIZE	200sqm
DESCRIPTION	Tayenebe is a Tasmanian Aboriginal word meaning 'exchange'. It is also the title of a unique project supporting Tasmanian Aboriginal women in the revival of traditional fibre artwork skills. Integral to Tayenebe is the sharing of knowledge between people and across time. A series of fibre workshops facilitated by Arts Tasmania will culminate in a touring exhibition which will initially open at the Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery in July 2009.
CONTENT	Fibre baskets of various sizes Historic Tasmanian baskets Digital footage of basket making & workshops Works on paper Fibre analysis display
AVAILABLE	from January 2010
NUMBER OF OBJECTS	10+ works on paper and 30+ fibre works 1 dvd
OBJECT MOUNTS	yes
EXHIBITION FURNITURE	yes
TARGET AUDIENCE
EDUCATION MATERIALS	yes
COMMUNITY PROGRAMMES	yes
MARKETING MATERIALS	images, logos, text
MERCHANDISE	catalogue
SPONSORSHIP
SIZE FOR FREIGHTING
SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS
COST	tbc based on cost share
INSTITUTION	Tasmanian Museum &amp; Art Gallery
CONTACT	Carole Hammond
TITLE	Exhibition & Display Coordinator
PHONE	03 6211 4190
EMAIL	carole.hammond@tmag.tas.gov.au